AVONDALE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE VALUES:

POSITION CONTEXT

Avondale University College is the premier educational institution of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Australia and New Zealand and exists to serve the greater good..

Our purpose since 1897 has been to develop students' respect for self and others through promoting a Biblical faith-based, ethical and pastoral world-view. Our ambition is to mentor service-oriented students who respond to the needs of local, national and global communities, following Jesus Christ.

Avondale is proud to be part of a worldwide Seventh-day Adventist church's educational network that includes 115 universities and colleges with a combined enrolment of 148, 373 students. Achieving Australian University College status in August 2019, we continue to provide a nurturing and welcoming environment inclusive of people of all faith traditions and beliefs.

Avondale's focus aligns with three broad areas of research: Scripture, spirituality and culture, Christian education and scholarship, and lifestyle and health. These fields frame the scope and priorities of our research centres and advance the goals of the institution's stakeholders. Our researchers are "Here for Good", and connecting with real-world issues, challenges and possibilities they inform best practice, enhance mission and improve local and global communities.

POSITION OVERVIEW

The Vice Chancellor is responsible for leading Avondale on behalf of and under the direction of Avondale's Council. The Vice Chancellor will preserve and enhance Avondale's mission, spiritual culture, academic standing and research, reputation, financial viability, and model excellent leadership and communication skills. The new Vice Chancellor will also lead the next phase of growth from University College to University within five years.
